confirming

As I stated on the phone with you on Sunday I believe that I am a victim of sexual assault. I spent a long time last night writing down what really happened in the entire flight. This is a nightmare for everyone and extends beyond the plane and there is much work to be done but I believe beyond a shadow of any doubt that I am not only legally innocent but a victim of a crime committed against me.

Justin >

You have admitted on several occasions - to Carissa, to me, and to your parents over FaceTime that you are attracted to teen girls. Teen girls are not considered adults, but they are not prepubescent.

Delivered

I understand what you are saying. I said what you said that I said. I'm saying that that specific word has a specific definition.

Justin >

saying that that specific word has a specific definition.

I guess what I meant
when I said I can turn it off was that I was thinking specifically of
that aspect of things.
Since I was honest and
talked with Carissa
(and others as you mentioned) about it, I haven't felt that
attraction anymore at
all.
For example, I don't
miss TikTok at all.

Justin >

(and others as you mentioned) about it, I haven't felt that attraction anymore at all.

For example, I don't miss TikTok at all.

But you were attracted to a teenager - the 18 year old on the plane

I sincerely hope you can turn off this attraction for good.

I meant after everything happened/blew up
